As an option, separate text files to generate astrological interpretations are available for the Radix software program. These are easy to add, just put them in the program folder, and will then form an integrated package. Each astrologer has his own point view, as you can see in the samples below. They are fragments of the delineation for king Filip of Belgium.

Mischa Bagley (UK) is the author of a package that gives you about 7 pages natal interpretation: planets in signs and houses, and aspects.

Example:

Fire > 40

A predominantly fiery nature gives you a hands-on attitude towards personal and professional situations and crises. You react swiftly and spontaneously, taking the initiative in order to control events and steer them your way. Indeed, you need to feel in control to be really happy. You have a lot of dynamic - even irrepressible - energy and a corresponding fund of enthusiasm. Inclined to be hot tempered, you can flare up quickly and easily. However, just as easily, you forgive and forget, for your energy is too fast-flowing - and therefore continually regenerative - to become stuck on things which rapidly become overtaken and superseded by time.

Air < 6

You need to develop and maintain your powers of self-expression and perception. Not that these faculties don't function, but you tend sometimes to let them slide - therefore, your capacity for insight and awareness can become subdued and clouded.

Fixed < 15

Your ability for concentration and discipline may be somewhat erratic at times. Accordingly, others might find it difficult - albeit mistakenly - to feel from you a corresponding sense of conviction and constancy.

Sun Semisquare Mars

We all have an aggressive side to our nature - how much we indulge in it is only a matter of degree. In your case, it's not necessarily your own aggression which might create conflict, but your over-reacting to the aggression of others. In other words, those who value their health better not mess with you!

Ascendant in Cancer

You have good intuition and a good appreciation of moral values, but you sometimes have trouble in putting yourself forward or convincing others of your point of view, despite how much you believe yourself to be right. This is because of your difficulty in maintaining a high self-esteem, for you are too easily persuaded that the world is a big bad apple and that the blame for this should fall on you. Well, we all know it's a big bad apple but, as to you being to blame - who on earth can believe that? So, listen: enough with the negativity, please, and more of the up-and-at-'em! After all, you have special qualities - many of them unique, in fact - and others are keen to know more about them. For starters, the intuitive faculty mentioned above is not something liberally sprinkled amongst our lesser brethren. With that you can go far. If you have a musical ability, for instance, you will know already how invaluable it is for, either as a listener or participant, it allows you a greater appreciation than is usual. This is because of intuition's empathic quality: its capacity for identifying with another person or thing and going through their experiences as if they were your own. Music apart, this same intuitive faculty is invaluable in your dealings with society at large, for it allows you to gauge others, to get a good appraisal of them without perhaps having to go through hell beforehand.

Moon in Sagittarius

On an emotional level, you are a blend of loyalty and independence. At times, you're up and down like a yo-yo. Well, you're allowed to be. Think of your lighter moments as the comic relief in an otherwise serious play: the plot - your emotional life - will become overloaded if tone isn't lightened every once in a while. In the loyalty stakes you can't be beaten, often having the vision to stand by those in whom others have no faith at all, convinced they will come good in the end. You're extremely excitable, often flaring up to defend your allies, or to defend your own integrity. In the heat of the moment your emotions boil over, and you often express yourself with greatly exaggerated gestures, making sudden and alarming movements which scare the pants off your opposition. Well, there's no smoke without fire, after all! You are, indeed, what is called hot-blooded. Being an incurable romantic, you long for adventure and, in your more private moments, dream of yourself and your partner confronting excitements and perils in far-off lands - which, of course you both survive, thanks to your bravery and valor!

Moon in 6

Your emotional life seems to exist in a secret world of its own, often inaccessible to others and even, at times, a mystery to you yourself. In other words, you can hide your feelings too well. This is not really intentional on your part; rather, it is done to protect your emotions from perhaps being exposed to too wide an audience, to those who might not appreciate what you have to offer and who might sully it. Therefore, up go the barricades and out come the defenses. Nevertheless, you have much sensitivity towards the feelings of others. Indeed you will measure others by their degree of feelingful responsiveness. On another level altogether, it will often reward you to spend some time looking into the purities of foods, and all things related to the health of mind and body for, similarly, you react strongly towards that which does not have a right amount of nutritional refinement. As you know better than most: you are what you eat, and that goes for your soul as well.

Moon Trine Venus

Your affections and your emotional life work pretty harmoniously together, giving you the confidence needed to express yourself to your partner without the fear of misunderstanding or rejection. You have an eye for the most attractive of partners, and it would be surprising if you didn't try to use your physical appearance to the best possible advantage.

Moon Square Mars

Emotionally, you often find yourself living on a knife-edge. You experience feelings passionately, though sometimes you have a little difficulty in keeping them in check. Thus, you're not always necessarily a peacemaker. It's not that you're intentionally provocative or aggressive - more to the point is that, because emotional harmony is sometimes elusive with you, you over-react to others whose behavior you might find slightly off-center.

Moon Trine Uranus

You're one of the lucky ones who can turn emotional turmoil into something constructive and creative. The point here is that turmoil is the essential pre-existent ingredient; you need it to be creative. It's the disruption itself which directs the positive outcome. In other words, there's no peace without first there being a little war. Emotionally speaking, that is.

Venus in 10

Everybody likes to attain some degree of authority in their lives, but you especially. It will never be good enough merely to remain just one of the many; much better to be one of the elite few! We are not talking about snobbery here, rather about the desire to achieve, particularly those worldly things of wealth and status.

The same texts as used in Robert Hand's "Professional Natal Report" program (Astrolabe Software) can be used in Radix, to produce a very complete horoscope delineation (± 18 pages A4) written by astrologer Steve Blake. This package will give you the planet distribution in hemispheres, elements and qualities, the planets and node in signs and in houses, meaning of the house cusps in the signs, all major aspects and semi-sextiles, quincunx's semi- and sesquiquadrates, and if any, stelliums and intercepted signs!

Example:

Fixed < 15

You tend to find it very difficult to stick to anything once you have begun it -- whether it be a job, a diet or a relationship. Your life must always be filled with variety and change in a never-ending kaleidoscopic manner or you get extremely frustrated. Unless you learn to build some stability into your life, others will tend to think that you can never carry anything through to conclusion.

Fire > 40

You are the original self-starter. You do not need any external stimuli to get you moving in new directions. You despise static, unchanging and unyielding situations and will exert your best efforts to change them if they exist. Very courageous, extremely active and quite dramatic, you can be an effective leader -- and will be the first in line to explore uncharted regions. However, your tendency to act first and think later can lead others to accusing you of insensitivity. Learn to be more aware of others' feelings.

Air < 6

Your tendency to react to situations directly and spontaneously prompts you to be suspicious of those who prefer to think things through before taking action. Also, your lack of forethought sometimes causes you to miss important interrelationships. This can cause you to get in over your head and wonder how you got there. You need to learn to carefully analyze any problem, especially before making any major decision or commitment.

Moon in Sagittarius

An idealist, you prefer the grand, the beautiful, the good and the noble. You get very disappointed when your high expectations in life are not met. Very curious by nature, you enjoy traveling and learning about other peoples and cultures. Try to avoid your tendency to ignore the small but important details of living. You are independent and free, and you want others to be that way, too. Optimistic, buoyant and cheerful, others like to have you around. You have an incessant desire to learn as much as possible about metaphysics, religion, philosophy and any other broad, deep subject. Your life tends to be punctuated by bursts of energy and frenetic activity.

Node in Virgo

You're usually quite at ease in leaving leadership roles in the hands of others. You would rather tend to the thousand and one details that need to be accomplished to keep any group going. Although you're very fussy and high-minded when it comes to choosing your associates, once your loyalty is given you can be trusted with many of the practical aspects of any project that is being undertaken. Usually quite unselfish, you will toil long hours in the service of any worthy cause that demands your attention. But be careful that your perfectionist tendencies don't get in the way of making real progress. (In other words, don't waste your time dusting clean shelves!)

Moon Square Mars

Your moods are so changeable and you are so restless and full of energy that it can be very difficult for others to deal with you on a regular basis. Irritability and argumentativeness do not make for pleasant companionship, therefore you must find some way to use up your excess energy in ways that will not be threatening to others -- sports, for example. Your temper is quick and explosive and you must learn to contain it. Because you tend to take action only after strong emotional input, try to seek out the advice of a respected and practical friend before you make major decisions.

Mars Conjunct Midheaven

You are very aware of yourself and what you need to accomplish in order to attain your life goals. Extremely self-confident, you are not afraid to make decisions, especially if they affect you directly. You are so independent that you may find it difficult to work well as a member of a team -- and you also may be unable to delegate authority, preferring to do everything yourself. This, of course, can cause you to over-extend yourself, so you must be sure that you properly marshal your energies lest you suddenly "run out of gas".

Moon Trine Venus

Your grace, beauty and sincerity attracts others to you. You are like an oasis of peace and tranquillity in the midst of most other people's stresses and tensions. You deeply care about the needs of others and go out of your way to provide rest, safety and nurture. Your strong sense of what is aesthetically pleasing will allow you to be either an artist yourself or, at the very least, an admirer of the arts. But you are not very aggressive and tend to let life come to you. Should you find things getting repetitive and boring, make your daily routine more varied.

Moon Trine Uranus

Your fiercely independent life style is more important to you than settling down to any sort of rigid routine. You are known for demanding the right to do whatever you want to whenever you want to. This leads you to at times be so rash and impulsive that you do things that you later regret. You fear close, intense emotional involvements. For you, a commitment involves giving others the freedom to be themselves at all times -- and you usually accomplish this by pushing them away from you.

Sun Semisquare Mars

You are known for being bold, blunt and direct when dealing with people. While it is refreshing to be so honest, you are often lacking in tact and can become quite offensive, especially to those with delicate feelings. Learn to notice the reactions of your associates. If they start avoiding you or if they become argumentative, you are probably coming on too strong, even though you personally do not think so.

Sun Quincunx Node

Community service occupies a great deal of your time and energy, and it's both a curse and a blessing for you. You tend to regret how this activity takes time away from your home, family and loved ones, yet you see that you can actually make an impact. Thus you often go around grumbling and moaning about what you're doing, but your associates usually just give you a wide berth because they know you don't really mean it. Try not to let your anxiety and tension show to those you are attempting to assist -- they don't need any more unpleasantness in their lives. Perhaps you would feel more comfortable working behind the scenes in some manner.

Ascendant in Cancer

Very sensitive by nature, you prefer to be in your own familiar surroundings. Cautious and conservative, you make changes in your life only very slowly, if at all. You do not open up easily to strangers. Friendships are made for life, however -- once given, your trust is forever. Your mother, your home as a child and your early family life in general are very important to you. You are also very sentimental. When you feel self-confident, you are gentle, giving and protective of the needs of others. But when you feel insecure or threatened, you become overly sensitive to criticism, shy, withdrawn and moody. You have a strong need for security -- in the sense that you are being loved, nourished and protected.

No Planets in 1

You have no planets in the first house. This does not mean that you do not have a personality, just that the way that others regard you is not usually a major issue for you. Look to the house position of the SUN, MARS and SATURN to learn how your sense of personal identity is integrated into your overall character.

House 2 in Cancer

You tend to be cautious and conservative with your own personal resources. You are very sentimentally attached to what you have and will only share it with those to whom you are emotionally committed. Security, the feeling of being loved and wanted and needed, is an issue that looms large in your life. When you feel secure, you are very sensitive to the needs of others and will go out of your way to accommodate them. When you feel ill at ease or threatened, you withdraw and become very stingy, moody and ill-mannered. You are at your best when dealing with the public -- your innate sensitivity to its needs allows you to be effective and caring and this assures success. You love to spend money and time on your home, family and children.

Mercury in 10

Your career will involve the use of your mind or perhaps the development of some skill that demands great hand-eye coordination. Advanced training and education will be important to you, not only because you have the aptitude for it, but also because you can apply the things you learn in practical and concrete ways. You are very good at expressing yourself through speech or writing and may well be attracted to a career in teaching, travel or communications.

Venus in 10

You see the world as being a beautiful, friendly and enjoyable place. The warmth and love and support provided by your home situation as a young person has had a great influence on your outlook as an adult. But you are not very aggressive and tend to think that the world should come to you rather than you going out to it. One of your better qualities is your ability to relate well to others. You are quite popular due to your personal warmth and gracious charm. Careers that involve a great deal of interpersonal contact should appeal to you.

Do you want more explanation of the transits? Then the package written by Ernie James (UK) is ideal. It gives you 4 to 20 lines about every major transit aspect!

Example:

jup (11) trine plu (3): 1/8/1999- 14/8/1999

You may put forth a fanatic endeavor to succeed. Your efforts will be farreaching, and geared to your becoming the best at whatever it is you want to do. Others may think you are big headed, but you don't pay the same attention to their opinions that you once might have. Your energy level is tremendous, so channel it in a positive direction. Travelling and foreign affairs are lucky and transformative, and you are successful in both business and love.

jup (11) trine jup (6): 1/8/1999- 9/8/1999

This should be an extremely fortunate period for you. Your worries should be very few. Contentment and success is yours almost for the asking. Listen to your instincts, and think positively in everything you do. Long-standing problems will be resolved now; solutions will present themselves. Accept any kind of invitation. Some form of recognition will be offered to you, and a lovely gift or golden opportunity will be the result. This is an excellent time to begin any new enterprise. Settle your disputes now; both personal, and those to do with the courts. In both cases, the result should be favorable.

sat (11) square ura (3): 1/8/1999- 6/10/1999 (exact: 14/8/1999, 14/9/1999)

Possibly because of past mistakes on your part, you seem to struggle now against personal restriction. Some kind of separation could occur, perhaps because of your own stubbornness and pride. In some way, you feel restricted in that part of yourself which is most individual and unique. You feel held back and prevented from being really free and independent. You may feel frustrated in expressing your individuality and creative ideas. You should examine yourself honestly, and ask if you are being too selfish. Are you emotionally mature in the way you relate to others? Are you asking for freedom with no responsibility at all? Do you give others the freedom you demand for yourself? Groups and partnerships can limit your freedom. Problems may occur in business and joint financial affairs. Some of this may be due to your own selfishness and tendency to use people. If this has been your habit or inclination, your career could suffer at this time. If your behavior has been overly erratic or self-serving, you may be called to account for your behavior.

plu (6) trine ven (10): 1/8/1999- 3/10/1999 (closest: 19/8/1999)

This is one of the most romantic, creative times of your life. You may have an important new friendship or love relationship. You put deep and intense feeling energies into your artistic creations, and your love. Both your creative abilities and your relationships are transformed and deepened, and will change your life for many years to come. Love and art are very profound and deep now; they will transform your life.

jup (11) trine plu (3): 4/9/1999- 1/10/1999 (exact: 21/9/1999)

You may put forth a fanatic endeavor to succeed. Your efforts will be farreaching, and geared to your becoming the best at whatever it is you want to do. Others may think you are big headed, but you don't pay the same attention to their opinions that you once might have. Your energy level is tremendous, so channel it in a positive direction. Travelling and foreign affairs are lucky and transformative, and you are successful in both business and love.

jup (11) trine jup (6): 9/9/1999- 3/10/1999 (exact: 23/9/1999)

This should be an extremely fortunate period for you. Your worries should be very few. Contentment and success is yours almost for the asking. Listen to your instincts, and think positively in everything you do. Long-standing problems will be resolved now; solutions will present themselves. Accept any kind of invitation. Some form of recognition will be offered to you, and a lovely gift or golden opportunity will be the result. This is an excellent time to begin any new enterprise. Settle your disputes now; both personal, and those to do with the courts. In both cases, the result should be favorable.

ura (9) sextile moo (6): 3/9/1999-10/12/1999 (closest: 23/10/1999)

Your emotions are intensified, and you can be very excitable in this period of time. Acting on your own instincts could bring you great rewards at a later date. You may have an unusual experience that will include a nice surprise, furthering your ambitions somehow in the near future. You will now be craving for more emotional excitement. You will want to meet people who are unusual, and your own emotional energy and charisma will draw them to you; this may, however, cause some jealousy with loved ones. This phase will certainly stimulate your emotional life.

plu (6) square mar (10): 30/10/1999-22/12/1999 (exact: 26/11/1999)

There is great energy here. If you suppress it, you will be subject to enormous inner tension. At this time, you are capable of accomplishing an enormous amount of work, and reaching your career goals. You have to strike a fine balance between allowing this energy to be expressed and controlling it, so that you don't ride roughshod over other people. If you do that, you will meet with tremendous opposition, naturally. Live your life as usual, but don't take risks now, with strangers or dangerous situations. You will have a greatly increased sex drive, which can be terrific for a romantic relationship, but you want to avoid people who are violent or excessively jealous. Express any anger that you feel; don't let it build up inside of you. That's the way accidents and violent arguments occur. If you meet someone on a power trip, you will have to stand up for your rights, but it's best to have others on your side while you're doing it. Be aware of the energies that you possess; release them constructively and safely. Avoid uncontrolled anger and conflict.

jup (11) conjunct sun (11): 22/11/1999- 18/1/2000 (exact: 5/12/1999, 4/1/2000)

Your health will improve, if you've been feeling a little low lately. Both physically and psychologically, you will be feeling good. You will have success in dealing with people in authority. You could receive good news, or a gift from unexpected sources. This is a good period for you, if you think positively. You are bound to feel more optimistic, and will act with your energies, to make success for yourself. In some way, you will want to expand your life, whether through new ideas or new experiences. This can be the beginning of something new in your future.

sat (11) sextile mar (10): 13/12/1999- 10/2/2000 (closest: 12/1/2000)

Success may come through disciplined efforts at this period of time. Your stubbornness in striving for certain objectives can create tension within the home environment, and with your loved ones. You know, however, that your earnest perseverance will bring you the rich rewards or promotion that you desire. Older people could help you to attain material or spiritual riches. You will have to listen to good advice, and when you have all the facts, use your own logic to attain a goal of lasting success.

ura (9) opposite ura (3): 23/1/2000- 26/2/2000 (exact: 9/2/2000)

This is a time when you have to adapt to new conditions and accept change. This time occurs twice in your life; once when you are a young adult, and again when you are in middle age. You now feel independent, and want to assume responsibility for your own actions. You are going to make your own decisions, and take control of your own life. When a parent sees his son or daughter undergoing this transit, he should understand that now is the time to let go. It is a time of great change, often characterized by rebellion, but it is the first step of assuming adulthood, and is entirely natural. Of course, with freedom goes responsibility. You make your own mistakes, but you pay for them yourself, too. Also, you have to make some important decisions about what you want to do with your life as an adult. The second time, probably in your sixties, is a sort of re-evaluation of how you have spent your life, and a decision to spend the rest of it in the most meaningful way possible. You may find yourself in new circumstances. You are beginning a new cycle of life, which can be very meaningful and happy, once the initial difficulties of adjustment are over. One great difference between this time and the first is that you have behind you the sum total of your life experience to help you decide on the next stage.
